The FOUNDATION OF COMFORT

EVERY enduring superstructure in this world must have a good foundation. This is of primary importance. As a good foundation upon which to build your health and happiness, nothing can be more substantial than properly cared-for feet. If you have two good feet under you, take care of them. Put them into the right shoes—and you may expect the permanent basis of real and lasting foot-comfort. Every "INVICTUS" last is a faithful mould of the human foot, and upon it, from the very best materials, is made "The Best Good Shoe."

AROUND THE TOWN

Mr. Prosper Vernon of B. C. was a visitor to his old home last week.

Miss Stella McClelland of Toronto is visiting with her cousin,
Mrs. Parker Reed.

Messrs. H. Miller and F. Nuhn of Alfeldt, Ont., were visitors at the Ev. parsonage on Tuesday.

Three Hills Fair is to be held next week, September 17th and 18th.

Mr. G. A. Curtis of Simcoe, Ont., father of Leigh S. Curtis, arrived here on Friday last.

Olds Fair has been postponed until Oct. 7th and 8th on account of wet weather and the farmers being so far behind with their work.

Milton Moyer of Edmonton was a visitor in town over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss J. Scheidt left on Friday last on a visit to friends in Portland, Oregon.

Couns. B. A. St. Clair is attending the meeting of Alberta Municipalities at Innisfail. Coun.
Shantz also went up but came back because of the death of his little grandson.

At the Baptist church on Sunday next the pastor hopes to preach on "An Old Man's Dream" in the morning and in the evening on "With the Outlaw King." Services at 11 and 7.30.
All heartily invited.

Some boys playing at the back of W. G. Liesemer's hardware store saw a muskrat one day this week and killed it with a stone.
The rat was a very large one and the pelt was in good condition.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Perschbacher will be sorry to learn of the death of their little son, David Louis, which took place on Tuesday.
Collitis was the cause of death.

German services will be held at the Evangelical church on Sunday morning next at 10.30.
All German speaking people are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Robert Smythe of Berlin, Ont., was visiting with his brother-in-law, Mr. C. L. Peterson, for a few days. Mr. Smythe is the proprietor of a large departmental store in Berlin and is taking a trip through the west studying conditions.

Arrangements are now being made for the annual Fall Fair, which will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3rd, this year. The prize lists are being printed in this office and will be in the hands of the secretary-treasurer, H. B. Atkins, at the end of the week.

The Didsbury Dancing Club are making arrangements to hold a dance in the Opera House on the night of Fair day, Thursday, October 3rd. The music will be supplied by the new local orchestra. Messrs. H. E. Sands,
A. Z. Weber, Ed. Weber and H.
Gathercole are the committee
who have the affair in hand.

Belfy & Friederickson will open up at the Opera House on Thursday night with a good programme

Complaints are being made by some of the farmers that boys and men from town are ignoring the signs of "No shooting" on their premises with the consequences that their cattle are being annoyed. Some of them also claim that prairie chicken are being shot out of season.
There is a heavy fine for this as the season for chicken does not open till October 1st.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gerts was the victim of a slight accident this week.
Mr. Gerts had been using some gasoline for cleaning clothes and a little was left in a cup. The little one, no doubt thinking it was water, drank some of it and the fumes took her breath away.

However, while it made her sick for a while, no harm has resulted and she is as well as ever.

Mr. L. S. Weber, a prominent furniture manufacturer and magistrate of Berlin, Ont., and his wife were visiting with their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Reitzel, for a few days last week. Mr.
Weber has been visiting extensively in the west and he stated that he thought that Alberta was the ideal and banner province for mixed farming and that Alberta would be preferred for this reason. Mr. Weber was also looking for a location for a branch of his factory and seemed very much impressed with Lethbridge
as the place because of its cheap power facilities.

Don't Nag

Nagging becomes a habit, and the woman who wants to make her home happy will avoid it like the plague.

It never does the slightest good, because if a man is nagged at his faults only increase. He gets tired of being perpetually reminded of them and of having his shortcomings dinned into his ears.

Women generally nag because they are tired—fagged out and nervy, but this is no real excuse for it.

Try being sweet, and it will have a much better effect.

TORONTO WOMAN WELL AGAIN

Freed From Bearing Down Pains, Backache and Pain in Side by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Toronto, Ont.—"Last October, I wrote to you for advice as I was completely run down, had bearing down sensation in the lower part of bowels, backache, and pain in the side. I also suffered terribly from gas. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now entirely free from pain in back and bowels and am stronger in every way. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound highly to all expectant mothers."

—Mrs. E. WANDY, 92 Logan Avenue, Toronto, Ontario.

Consider Well This Advice.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for nearly forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Usually Due to Overwork and Worry—A Tonic is Needed

Overwork and worry give rise to nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, lack of ambition and lack of interest in your work, weak back, indigestion and sometimes a complete breakdown of the nervous system. On every hand you find victims of this kind and often they do not know what to do for themselves. If these are your symptoms you need a tonic, and the only way to tone up the nerves is through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a direct nerve tonic because they enrich and build up the blood, and it is through the blood that the nerves are fed. Under their tonic influence nervousness, with all its attendant evils, disappear, and the worried sufferer again enjoys health and strength. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in nervous troubles is given by Mrs. Lara Schering, Lundar, Man., who says:—"I was attacked with nervous trouble which almost drove me to distraction. It would be almost impossible for words to describe my condition. The least thing would startle me and leave me trembling for an hour. I had nervous headaches, and slept very badly at nights, some nights not at all. My appetite grew poor, and I was really a physical wreck. I had been to several doctors and had taken many different medicines, but without any benefit. Then I read of a case similar cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I sent for a dozen boxes fully believing it would take at least that many to cure me. You can judge of my gratitude, however, when I found that after using only half a dozen boxes I was again enjoying the best of health, and have since remained well and strong. I used the remainder of the pills among my children when they seemed out of sorts, and have found them at all times to be the very best of family medicines."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Backache Means Your Kidneys Want Help!

The kidneys are among the most important organs. They are most subject to periods of depression, imperfect action and lowered vitality. Invariably, they give warning, in the form of backache, headache, pains in the joints, etc. Wise people, careful of their health, act quickly when any of these symptoms appear. Careless or easy-going persons often permit a slight affection of the kidneys to grow into acute or chronic kidney trouble, ignoring the plainly-given warning of unhealthy kidneys.

Prompt help is given inactive kidneys by DR. CLARK'S SWEET NITRE PILLS. They cleanse, tone, stimulate and restore the kidneys to normal vigor in quick time. Sold everywhere at fifty cents a box or mailed direct by

STRANGE EXECUTION

Religious Service Conducted at Murderer's Home at Fatal Hour

There were remarkable scenes at Blackburn, England, in connection with the execution of a weaver of the name of Arthur Birkett, who killed his sweetheart through reasons of jealousy. The vicar held a service in the house in which Birkett had resided, which was very impressive. Among those present was the mother of the murdered girl. A table in the centre of the room was covered with floral tributes. Outside the house a crowd of several hundred collected, and on the stroke of the fatal hour, when the drop fell, began singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

A NOTE OF WARNING

The west is agog with a discussion on the merits of mixed farming for the prairies. Many experts declare it is the only sure preventive of soil exhaustion. Most farmers, however, are either convinced of the inextinguishability of the soil's fertility or they are not worrying over that prospect so long as they reap good harvests with small outlay now. The experts, however, are mindful of the fate of the western states, just across the border, where the yield per acre has steadily declined.—Canadian Globe.

MIXED FARMING

Vice-President Bury is Much Interested in the Subject

Vice-president Bury, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, while in Calgary returning from a trip to the Coast, said the company is very much interested in the question of mixed farming, and will do everything in its power to encourage the farmers to engage to a greater extent in this branch of agriculture. He believed that more mixed farming was essential to the welfare of the country and it is astonishing to find so much agricultural produce being imported. "On this trip," he said, "I was served with butter from New Zealand, mutton from Australia, fruit from the United States, marmalade from England, and potatoes from Virginia. At Vancouver I noticed a shipment of twenty-five carloads of condensed milk from Eastern Canada being loaded on a vessel for export. All these articles should be produced in Western Canada."

ROMANCE OF FORMOSA

How a Native Maiden Saved a Japanese Explorer From Death

In order to help the process of civilising wild Formosa the Japanese authorities make a practice of bringing to Japan a party of natives who, returning, help in the pacification of their brethren by a description of the great country in which their overlords live.

Amongst the party this year is a young woman named Yayutsu Beriyah, whose history is romantic. Eleven years ago a Japanese druggist who was visiting Formosa to obtain knowledge of the herbs of the island was captured by aboriginals of the tribe of which Yayutsu's father was chief. According to the fierce law of the jungle he was condemned to death.

At the moment of execution, however, Yayutsu, who had lost her heart to the captive, pleaded with her father and chief for his life. The father granted it on condition that she married him and left the tribe for ever, only pledging herself that if she ever wanted to leave her husband and return she should bring his scalp with her.

That unhappy event has not yet occurred, and Mrs. Nakano, as Yayutsu has now long been, lives happily with her husband. She is a very pretty woman, her face only marred by the tattooing which she underwent in early youth.

TWO HUNDRED FAKE ACCIDENTS

Man Makes Living for Three Years by Pretended Injuries

Eighteen months' imprisonment with hard labor was the sentence recently given to a man in London, 37 years old, who in three years has "faked" about 200 accidents, for which he was paid various amounts, mostly by shopkeepers, rather than fight the case in court. He would fall down, and then make claim to have been injured through the negligence of the persons whom he made his victims. Had the cases come into court he would have been detected.

His deception was favored by a malformed wrist, which he represented as due to the accident. A confederate accompanied him, making notes of each accident, with particulars of the name and address of those from whom the money was to be obtained.

TREES AND MOISTURE

The Necessity of Paying More Attention to Forestry in the West

That many districts in Western Canada afford excellent opportunity for the substitution of wheat raising by the cultivation of roots and grains, is associated with stock raising and dairying industries, cannot be denied. It is also true that the Provinces have natural facilities, which, if developed along right lines, could more than supply the food-stuffs required in Western cities. There is undoubtedly a scarcity of water at several points, but this is not an insurmountable difficulty. It has already been demonstrated that wells sometimes sunk from two hundred to three hundred feet produce an ample supply of water. There is, also, the necessity of collecting, as far as possible, the rain fall, which, as a rule, is ample for the production of a first class crop of wheat. This is conserved in large cement tanks, covered in, and used, in the dry weather, in watering stock. The same result is obtained in places by big ditches, which have been dug down to the blue clay, which is almost impervious to water. These ditches, when dammed, are converted into small reservoirs by every rain fall, and, prove their value, afterwards, for watering purposes, evaporation being the only waste. More attention should be given to forestry. In many cases, trees have been cut down, which went a long way to retaining moisture. Had a policy of tree planting been followed persistently and systematically, moisture would not only have been retained, but would have been increased, and, the opportunity for dairying and stock raising thereby promoted. Much attention, however, is now being given to this subject particularly in Saskatchewan. Dr. McConnell, M.P.P. in an interview, at Morden, on this subject, said that every man who knocked down one tree, should plant two in its stead.

An article that has real merit should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. W. H. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

A WORD OF ADVICE

"At the present time Winnipeg is importing $40,000 worth of cream per week. The prairie farmer finds it easier to produce wheat, a crop of which the entire work can be done in a few months of summer. There is no need of argument, however, to show how desirable it is that all the dairy products required in Western Canada should be produced in it, and that the farmers of the West ought to devote themselves more largely to dairying operations. In Ontario where the farmers were all growing wheat and shipping it out of the country they were almost all poor. Since they have gone into dairying, especially in to the production of cheese, they have become very prosperous."—Sir William Whyte.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

CHAPTER XXXI
Montague and Capulet

She'll love one day and hate the next. She'll save your life in the morning and in the evening she'll be ready to murder you. She is beautiful as a fairy but as treacherous as a snake.

She is the daughter of a lunatic who is hidden away in the Abbey. And Lady Anne Daubeney is mad.

Harry wished he could forget Stephen Jessop's words.

He would not have owned it even to himself, but he was far less happy and contented than he had felt on his first arrival at Crayborne.

Night and day he tormented his mind about Lady Anne, trying to account for her strange changes of humor and her unaccountable caprices and to reconcile them with the exalted ideal he had formed of her.

It was not only the ideal which he loved. Lady Anne had fired his imagination, but she had also touched his heart by her wrongs, her loneliness, and her charity; and her singularly picturesque style of beauty stirred his senses more than good looks in woman had ever yet done.

Nevertheless, he could not but marvel at the odd and unattractive objects upon whom she chose to lavish her kindness, a surly foul-mouthed old man and a malignant and hideous idiot seemed to suggest a trace of freakishness in her benevolence, and her avowed dislike against so lovely a

Baby's Rash Became a Mass of HumorParents Decided He Could Not Be Cured, "Cuticura" Soon Made
His Skin Perfectly Clear.

A Toronto man, Mr. Robert Mann, of 7584 Queen St. East, says: "Our boy was born in Toronto on Oct. 13, 1909, and when three months old a slight rash appeared on his cheeks. What appeared to be a water blister formed. When it broke, matter would run out, starting new blisters until his entire face, head and shoulders were a mass of sores and you could not see a particle of clear skin."

We did not know what to do for him and tried almost every advertised remedy without avail, indeed some of them only added to his suffering and one in particular, the—Remedy, almost put the infant into convulsions. The family doctor prescribed for him. This did not do any good, so we took him to a hospital. He was treated as an out-patient, for a week and he got worse. If anything, we then called in another doctor and inside of a week the boy was, to all appearances, cured and the doctor said his work was done. But the very next day it broke out as bad as ever.

"We decided that it could not be cured and must run its course and so we just kept his arms bandaged to his side to prevent his tearing his flesh. The Cuticura Remedies were recommended. We started using them in May, 1909, and soon the cure was complete. Cuticura made his skin perfectly clear and he is entirely free from the skin disease." (Signed) Robert Mann, May 3, 1910.

In another letter, dated June 29, 1911, he adds: "My boy has never had any more trouble since using Cuticura."

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most successful treatment for skin and scalp troubles of infants, children and adults. A single set is often sufficient. Although sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-page book on the skin, will be sent free, on application to Potter, Drug & Chem. THE WORLD'S WORK DEPENDS
ON THE WORLD'S DIGESTION

From the captain of industry to the hod carrier—from milady in the auto to the woman with the scrubbing brush—the accomplishments of every one of us depend absolutely on the accomplishments of our stomachs. Backed by a good digestion, a man can give the best that is in him. When his stomach fails, he becomes a weakling.

To this loss of power no one need submit. Right habits of eating, drinking, sleeping and exercise, aided by Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, will restore and maintain the full efficiency of the human mind and body.

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets contain the active principles needed for the digestion of every kind of food. They go to the assistance of the weakened stomach, and enable the sufferer, right from the start, to assimilate and get the benefit of the food eaten. With this assistance, the digestive organs regain their tone, and soon the use of the tablets is no longer necessary.

If your stomach is not working properly, try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c. at your druggist's. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

Zam-Buk

child as Edwin Jessop strengthened this idea.

I don't and won't believe that objectionable old man's story about her—though I cannot help wondering who that unhappy creature at the altar steps could be. A lunatic hidden away in the Abbey, the "weapon" lady, of whom the sexton told me; the person of whom Lisette was told to "take no notice"; all those descriptions seemed to suggest the creature I saw in the chapel, who was unmistakably the spy who followed us in the cloisters that night.

But I am by no means sure that this person really is a woman!

The face which peered out from a sort of cowl of dark material might belong equally well to a man. Certainly there was nothing feminine about it.

Who was this person?

The door I saw in the stone corridor outside the chapel led into the cell of a monk; does this creature live there?

And why did Lady Anne make no allusion to this other mysterious occupant of her house? If not her mother or her father, as Stephen Jessop suggested, who can it be?

The young man's mind, healthy but romantic, was embroiled in a struggle of perplexities and of disquieting surmises.

Lodgers Abbey, equally with its inmates, seemed to have put a spell upon him. Everywhere he turned he was faced by something he could not understand; and the actions of persons wholly outside his daily life at Crayborne, such as Leopold Sarto, and the young man with the note of interrogation in his tie, were as perplexing and as incomprehensible as those of Lady Anne herself.

I shall end in an asylum if this sort of thing goes on, Harry reflected as he blew out his candle that night and got into bed, with the forward conviction that, however carefully he might conceal electric light contrivances and revolvers under his pillow, he yet, being a heavy sleeper, was entirely at the mercy of something, someone, he knew not what or whom, that could enter his room and leave it at will.

Rising early from a troubled night of dreams, he flung open the windows and looked across the fields towards the Abbey trees.

Even at that early hour the air was oppressively hot and quiet with that strange stillness which presages a thunder-storm.

Harry felt a great longing to be away somewhere on breezy downs and uplands, where he could freely breathe. He thought of the country through which he had been driven on the preceding Sunday in going and in coming from Vale House, for Mr. Warne had at least had the courtesy to insist upon his guest returning to Crayborne in his carriage. The country of heather and fir trees and of open spaces high above the sea was close at hand, he knew; but this seemed hardly the day for a long walking excursion.

He thought of Lillas and suddenly felt a wish to see her. There were not problems or mysteries about her, and she seemed this delightful country in the right way, on horseback. As he was dressing the memory of her face, eager, sympathetic, full of ready enjoyment in life as it is, and with a responsive humor shining in her brilliant hazel eyes at every comic incident or word, came vividly before him.

That is a nice girl, he told himself. I wish she were not. Denzil Warne's niece. I wish she were my—no, not my sister; that would not be sufficiently interesting—but my cousin. How I should enjoy telling everything to such a cousin! Her ready brain might understand some of these mysteries which to my slower intelligence are incomprehensible. She did not know how to ride, but she was plucky at sticking on. We would ride out together, and I would teach her how to manage her horse, and she would teach me more about women. That might help me with Lady Anne.

With the unconscious selfishness of a lover, it did not occur to him that this process of mutual improvement might possibly be dangerous to the lady's peace of mind. Harry belonged to the big, handsome, athletic type, which is seldom vain, and he would have been astonished had anyone assured him that Lillas Moreau was much more than half in love with him already.

Yes, you did, the southerner admitted, but it's plain from the size of your pension list that before we gave in we crippled every blessed one of you!

How Tailors Sew on Buttons

Tailors double their thread used to sew on buttons and make a knot and hold the knot in the teeth while they twist the thread; then they wax it, and that keeps it twisted. Then they put a pin across the button, and after the buttons are sewed on they remove the pin and wind the thread around several times, making a kind of a stem as this makes it more easy to button the garment. The buttons on children's waists should be sewed on this way so more than one garment can be buttoned on the same waist.

A FOOD CONVERT

Good Food the true Road to Health

The pernicious habit some persons still have of relying on nauseous drugs to relieve stomach trouble, keeps up the patent medicine business and helps keep up the army of dyspeptics.

Indigestion—dyspepsia—is caused by what is put into the stomach in the way of improper food, the kind that so taxes the strength of the digestive organs they are actually crippled.

When this state is reached, to resort to tonics is like whipping a tired horse with a big load. Every additional effort he makes under the lash diminishes his power to move the load.

Try helping the stomach by leaving off heavy, greasy, indigestible food and take on Grape-Nuts—light, easily digested, full of strength for nerves and brain, in every grain of it. There's no waste of time nor energy when Grape-Nuts is the food.

"I am an enthusiastic user of Grape-Nuts and consider it an ideal food," writes a Main man.

"I had nervous dyspepsia and was all run down and my food seemed to do me but little good. From reading an advertisement I tried Grape-Nuts food, and, after a few weeks' steady use of it, felt greatly improved.

"Am much stronger, not nervous now, and can do more work without feeling so tired, and am better every way.

"I relish Grape-Nuts best with cream and use four heaping teaspoonfuls as the cereal part of a meal. I am sure there are thousands of persons with stomach trouble who would be benefited by using Grape-Nuts. Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. More About
The Loading Platform

The present generation of Western farmers will never know the difficulties and vexations experienced by their predecessors in the earlier years when no one could get a carload of grain shipped in bulk except by loading it through an elevator. The system forced the majority of farmers to sell their grain to the elevator owners at arbitrary prices, and oft times to submit to heavy dockage and other annoyances, causing continual dissatisfaction. Now however the distribution of cars as fixed by the Grain Act, and the use of the loading platform, provide facilities which enable the farmer to secure satisfactory treatment in the disposal of his grain and the highest market prices at time of sale. Every farmer therefore, should more and more endeavor to use the loading platform in shipping his grain to the terminal elevators. It is the safeguard of the farmers' freedom in disposing of his grain to the best advantage for himself. If farmers refrain from using the loading platform freely, it might result in its being done away with, because railway companies and elevator owners are strongly opposed to it. It is easy to understand why elevator people desire the loading platform abolished. The railway people on their part say it delays the loading of cars and helps to cause car shortage. This we know to be nonsense, because frequently after cars are loaded whether with grain, coal, lumber or other merchandise, they are sidetracked for days and even weeks instead of being promptly moved forward to destination. It is engine shortage and shortage of competent train men that mostly causes grain to be loaded on railroads and not lack of cars. Let every farmer therefore, do all he can to use the loading platform and become an independent shipper. In subsequent advertisements we will state in detail the savings and other advantages of direct loading into cars compared with loading through elevators.

We handle the farmers grain strictly on commission, make liberal advances on car bills of lading, supervise the grading at time cars are inspected, secure the highest prices at time of sale and make prompt returns when sold. Write us for shipping instructions and market information.

BUTTER IS IMPORTED

NOT ENOUGH PRODUCED IN CANADA FOR DEMAND

Three Million Pounds Purchased last Winter in United States and New Zealand—Outlook for Dairying is Exceedingly Good, and Farmers Should Increase Production.

Ottawa.—The department of agriculture has made public the report of J. A. Rudnick, the dairy and cold storage commissioner, for the year ending March 31, 1913. Mr. Rudnick, in the course of his summary of the features of the year, makes some interesting remarks on the subject of the home market.

After noting that the unfavorable weather of 1911 caused a shortage of butter and cheese, Mr. Rudnick says: "It became apparent early in the winter that the stock of stored butter in Canada, plus the winter production, would be insufficient to supply the demand until the new season's output would be available. As a result a large quantity of butter was imported, principally from New Zealand, the total quantity, covering from that winter down to date, March 31, being 2,153,944 pounds.

There has also been imported during the year 929,318 pounds from the United States.

In explanation of this, Mr. Rudnick says that the freight and duty, 3 cents per pound, on freshly made butter from New Zealand amounts to about the same as the cost of carrying Canadian butter from summer to March. Canada, he says, does not produce enough butter during the winter for her current demands and must either hold some summer butter in storage or import from the southern hemisphere.

It is not unlikely, he says, that the Pacific coast, at any rate, will continue for some years as in the past, to secure partial supplies from Australia.

Dealing with the export market he says:

Germany continues to grow in importance of international trade in dairy produce, every year importing larger quantities of butter. It would appear that on the whole the world's consumption of dairy products is increasing rather faster than production and that reserve stocks are lighter at the present moment than they have been for many years.

The outlook for dairying at present is exceedingly good and there is every encouragement from the market point of view for Canadian farmers to increase their production.

Dealing with the home trade, Mr. Rudnick remarks that while it is very large, it has not in the past attracted as much attention as its volume would warrant.

Largest Aerial Fleet

Berlin.—The largest aerial fleet ever assembled will take part in the autumn manoeuvres of the German army, under the direction of the Kaiser. It will consist of forty aeroplanes and three airships, and the general staff will make extensive experiments in the use of aircraft in war.

Another London Statue

London.—The statue of Lord Clive which is to be erected on the stairs leading to St. James Park at the bottom of King Charles street, Whitehall, will, it is hoped, be unveiled by the King.

Cheap Coal

Edmonton.—Good anthracite coal delivered in the markets of the prairie provinces at from $2.50 to $4.00 a ton instead of $10 to $15 a ton, is a possibility, through the finding of a new native supply in Alberta, fifty miles from Calgary.

Autonomy for Macedonia

London.—Unless the Powers soon succeed in securing the autonomy for Macedonia, says the Daily Mail Sofia correspondent, even the present Bulgarian government will become convinced of the necessity for war with Turkey in order to compel the Porte to concede autonomy.

U.S. Rails for Manchester

Manchester, Eng.—The city council after much opposition voted for the acceptance of an American tender to supply tram rails. Many of the councillors wanted the higher British tender accepted.

Ottawa.—J. H. Grisdale, director of the experimental farm, has left on an extended tour through the Canadian west. He will go through to the coast, and expects to be absent about six weeks.

Cardiff.—The new reefs of gold discovered near Dolgelly have been carefully analysed, and the average yield of 1000 tons of ore is 30 dwts to the ton.

DATE OF PARLIAMENT MEETING

Whether it Will Assemble in November or January is Matter of Speculation

Ottawa.—Speculation as to whether Parliament will open in November or January is on the increase in the capital and while members of the government themselves state that the matter will not be settled until there is a full meeting of the cabinet, there would appear to be a growing belief that the government may not be able to get its sessional programme in readiness for November. If it is found it to be impossible to do so the ministers will have to decide whether it would be better to meet in November with some of the bills ready to proceed with or to wait to January and meet the house with a practically complete parliamentary bill of fare. That it will be practically impossible for the government to get down to a steady and continuous consideration of its estimates and legislative measures before the end of September or the beginning of October is certain.

C.P.R. Holding Company

Toronto.—A story was in circulation today that the Canadian Pacific may form a holding company to take over the company's vast holdings in the west in event of the government refusing to sanction the capital increase. European and American shareholders in larger numbers than ever in the company's history will attend the annual meeting next month in Montreal.

DR. G. E. MORRISON, NEW ADVISER TO CHINESE GOVERNMENT

ASKWITH ARRIVES

Will Study Working of the Lemieux Act in Canada

Montreal.—Sir George Askwith, president of the Industrial council, the British committee appointed to make a government inquiry into how labor agreements may be best enforced and into labor legislation in various countries, has arrived in Montreal and will visit the chief centres in Canada and the United States, investigating particularly in Canada the working of the Lemieux act. Today he met a number of employers of labor and also representatives of the working people.

I intend to meet further employers of labor, said Sir George, and persons who take an interest in the labor question. I shall go to Ottawa, Toronto and probably to the trades union congress at Guelph and then on to Calgary and Vancouver in order to see important representatives of both the employers and employed, and later will visit the United States.

NELSON AS BAY TERMINAL

Opinion Prevails at Ottawa That This will be Choice—Cochrane Re-turning

Ottawa.—A telegraph message received at the department of railways today from Indian Harbor stating that the government steamer Stanley, which is conveying Hon. P. Cochrane minister of railways, from Hudson Bay to North Sydney, will, in all probability arrive at North Sydney on Tuesday. It is expected that the minister will on arrival at Sydney, start at once for the capital.

A definite announcement as to the government's choice of the terminals on Hudson Bay is expected soon after Mr. Cochrane reaches the capital.

The general expectation is that Nelson will get the choice over Churchill and that in the course of a few months a contract will be let for the construction of the section of the road between Split Lake and the more southern port.

Imperial Scholarship Scheme Planned

Ottawa.—Notice has been received at Ottawa of a scheme for scholarship at secondary schools and colleges in Britain for pupils for similar institutions in the overseas dominions. The object of the promoters of the scheme is described as cultivation of mutual knowledge and unity of sentiment between rising generations in Britain and the dominions. Scholarships are open to boys and girls in any of the colonies. The promoters also propose an exchange of pupils in overseas schools.

Berlin.—Automatic money-banking machines have been placed by the automatic Savings Bank in thirty-five public schools at Stettin for collecting and registering cash deposits made by school children.

ITALY AND TRIPOLI

ITALIANS ANNOUNCE TERMS FOR ENDING WAR

Express a Determination to Maintain Hold on Tripoli and Cyrenaica—Will Return to Turkey Islands in Aegean Sea, Excepting Stampalia.

Chiasso, Switzerland.—Italy is determined to maintain its hold on Tripoli and Cyrenaica. No great advance has yet been made in the unofficial negotiations for peace which are now going on in Switzerland between the Italian delegation and representatives of the Turkish government. The former, while expressing their readiness to make concessions in behalf of Italy in secondary matters, have declared it impossible to give in on several points. Italy demands absolute and complete sovereignty over Tripoli and Cyrenaica without, however, exacting its recognition from Turkey. It demands the evacuation of the Turkish troops and it is pointed out that the administration at Constantinople might find a way to meet these demands by proclaiming the independence of these territories, entrusting the Arabs to govern themselves.

It is also proposed that Turkey shall immediately readmit Italians to the Ottoman Empire under the same conditions as prevailed before the war.

Italy will keep Stampalia as a naval station, while she will return to Turkey the other islands in the Aegean Sea on condition that their nationality shall be respected and that their political and administrative organization shall be conducted on the lines set forth in the proposal of Count Leopold von Berchtold, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister. Finally Italy will grant Turkey the same concessions as were granted by Austria when the latter country annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

WOMEN CLIMBERS IN BLIZZARD

Canadian Sprains her Ankle and Has to Seek Shelter in Hut—Another Held Prisoner

Geneva.—Miss Sommerville, a Canadian Alpinist, joined her parents in Geneva after being overdue thirty hours, ten of which she spent in a hut in the Mont Blanc range during a snowstorm and with a sprained ankle.

The young Canadian, who is a good climber, started from Courmayeur, Italy, without a guide to cross the Col du Geant, 11,052 feet high, to Chamonix and was overtaken by a violent snowstorm. During the hurried descent to gain the shelter of the hut she slipped and twisted her ankle.

Miss Sommerville says an Alpine storm surprised in severity a Canadian blizzard, but happily it does not last so long.

About the same time Miss Oldfield, of London, who is staying at Aosta, was caught in the same storm while climbing Mont Cormet, 8123 feet high, and was forced to spend many hours in an Alpine hut.

A search party of Italian guides set out in quest of the lost Englishwoman, and after a long and useless search returned to Aosta to find that she had arrived several hours before.

MUTINY IN BLACK SEA

Reports That Forts Have Been Bombarded and Warships Sunk

London.—A private telegram from Sebastopol reported a mutiny of the crews of the Black Sea Squadron, according to the Constantinople correspondent of the Chronicle.

The warships bombarded the forts which replied vigorously and sunk one of the attacking vessels.

The heavy gun fire continued as the despatch left. It is stated that one cruiser escaped and reached Burgas, Bulgaria. No confirmation of this report has been received from other sources.

Labor Conditions Quiet

Ottawa.—The labor department reports quiet conditions throughout the country, insofar as industrial disturbances are concerned. The strikes which occurred throughout the country in July did not extend into August, and there are only a few disputes pending. In all cases conciliation boards have either been applied for or at work.

Great Timber Resources

Vancouver.—Provincial timber officials have just completed an estimate which shows that one billion feet of timber per year is cut in this province. The same officials figure that six billion feet could be safely cut without diminishing the supply. The rate of cutting could be therefore increased six times and kept up for ever without depleting the supply.

Saskatchewan Cadets

Toronto.—The Saskatchewan Mounted Cadets were examined by the competition judges at the Canadian National Exhibition and were found to be far above the average in cleanliness and general appearance, while their saddlery and other appointments were in excellent condition.

They did not take part in the marching competition.

Arches in Vancouver

Vancouver.—Both the C.N.R. and G.N.R. have signified their intention of erecting arches in Vancouver streets in connection with the visit of the Duke of Connaught.

SAFE-GUARDING LIVES AT SEA

British Board of Trade Issues Revised Rules as Outcome of Titanic Inquiry

London.—As an outcome of the Titanic inquiry, the board of trade has issued revised rules for increasing the safety of lives at sea. The rules become effective on January 1, 1913. They will provide that foreign going passenger ships and emigrant ships and foreign sailing ships carrying passengers shall be required to furnish life boat accommodation for all on board; the life boat equipment which has been increased must be in the boats as soon as the ship leaves the harbor and there remain throughout the voyage.

The number of persons to be carried in each boat must be marked on it. Sidney Buxton, of the board of trade, in issuing the new rules makes the statement that it may be necessary to obtain further legislative powers in order to make adequate boat drill compulsory and secure crews to man the boats properly.

The rule is abrogated which permitted ships with bulkheads to carry a lesser number of boats.

SCHOOL FARM FOR BRITISH

Hon. Rupert Guinness to Place Young Men on His New Brunswick Property

Fredericton, N.B.—The Hon. Rupert Guinness, M.P., of England who with Lord and Lady Onslow, have been on a fishing trip, is going to purchase a farm in New Brunswick before leaving the Maritime Provinces and upon this farm he expects to place young men from the middle classes in England, who are anxious to get back to the land.

By remaining on his property for some time, the young men will thus gain sufficient experience to be able to succeed in this country.

The Colony Farm exhibit includes shires, Clydesdales, hackneys, and ponies.

CANADA'S BIG TRADE

Returns Show Total of $237,313,779 For First Quarter of 1912

Ottawa.—Official figures of exports and imports for the first quarter of the current year, namely to June 30, show a total Canadian trade of $237,313,779, an increase of $55,332,250 over the corresponding period of last year. Imports for the quarter, exclusive of coin and bullion, totalled $152,975,545 as against $117,419,627.

Exports totalled $76,266,776 as against $56,624,400 for the first quarter of 1911.

Another Canal

Berlin.—There is a rumor in financial circles here that negotiations are on foot in London for the formation of an Anglo-French syndicate for the construction of a canal through Nicaragua with the object of countering the difficulties that have arisen over the Panama Canal—through the passage of the Panama Canal law by the American congress. Men in authoritative circles are incredulous and the origin of the rumor cannot be traced. Nothing is said to be known in London about it.

Eating Dogs

Berlin.—Stories are in circulation in connection with the high cost of food that poor people are killing and eating dogs. Those who believe it point for proof to an advertisement in a Zacon newspaper in which the Dresden society for the prevention of cruelty to animals calls attention to the mysterious disappearance of large dogs, which it is supposed were caught for slaughtering.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON XI—THIRD QUARTER, FOR SEPT. 15, 1912

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xi, 20-30, Memory Verses, 28-30—Golden Text Matt. xi, 28—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This lesson is another step backward in the regular sequence of events but it matters comparatively little, as it is in the heart of every lesson, and the book is given to us that we may know God, who can be known only through Jesus Christ, as we shall see before we have finished the lesson.

Our attention is caught first by the three references to His mighty works (verses 20, 24, 28), and we remember that He said on one occasion: If I do not the works of My Father believe Me not. But if I do, though ye believe not Me, believe the works that ye may know and believe that the Father is in Me and I in Him, (John x, 37, 38). In Israel's national anthem, which was written so long ago and which they will sing when the kingdom comes, they will exhort one another to declare His doings, for He hath done excellent things (Isa. xli, 4). In their great psalter they are repeatedly urged to talk of all His wondrous works (Ps. lxxviii, 4; xcvi, 3; cv, 2-5; cvl, 2). We should begin at creation and follow on through His dealings with Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Israel's deliverance from Egypt and all His subsequent dealings with them, then remember that He who did these mighty works in Chorazin, Bethsaida, Capernaum, is the same person whom we saw working from creation onward who was born as the Son of Mary in Bethlehem, but whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity (Mic. v, 2, margin).

Mark His: I say unto you (verses 22, 24) and remember that it is the same as this: thus saith the Lord, of the Old Testament, and it stands to all eternity. He is speaking as the Judge when He talks of the future of Tyre and Sidon and Sodom and the day of judgment and says that it will be more tolerable for them than for the cities in which He did His mighty works, for the Father judgeth no man but hath committed all judgment unto the Son (John v, 22). What this more tolerable may mean we cannot know certainly, but we do know that there are degrees in punishment, many stripes and few stripes, as there are also degrees in glory—every one punished or rewarded according to their doings (Rev. xxii, xlii, 12; Jer. xvii, 10). Salvation is the same for all and wholly of grace apart from any works of ours, but the rewards for the saved will be according to service. All who reject Christ are lost, but punishment will be according to desert. As to the day of judgment, it will cover a thousand years, saved people being judged for service at the judgment seat of Christ and the nations after that, when the redeemed come with Christ in glory, both of those judgments at the beginning of the thousand years—the judgment of the great white throne for the rest of the dead at the end of the thousand years. The Lord is not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance (1 Pet. iii, 9), and one of His last commands before His ascension was that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations (Luke xxiv, 47). Even after the church shall have been caught up, when the trumpets shall be sounded and the vials of wrath poured out, it will be in order that men may repent (Rev. ix, 20, 21; xvi, 9, 11). The wisdom of this world cannot receive these or any other truths of God and is increasingly rejecting the whole world of God and thus we learn that we are fast nearing the end of this ungodly age and the dawn of a better one. Let us be glad to be the little children, the babes, who believe every word that our Heavenly Father has told us, and let us not forget that the world by its wisdom, whether in the pulpit or the pew or the professor's chair, does not and cannot know God (1 Cor. i, 21). It is better to know God than to possess the riches or wisdom or might of this world, but it requires true humility and poverty of spirit, and that the proud, rebellious carnal mind of man does not have and does not want (Jer. ix, 23, 24; Matt. v, 3; Jas. iv, 6).

When we are able to say concerning all the words and works of God, all that He does or permits to be done the words of verse 26 from the heart, "Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Thy Sight," we have reached a place of real soul rest, a place where we can abide satisfied. This was the rest of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Father sent Him, and He lived by the Father, always pleasing the Father and delighting Himself in the Father's will. So He says to all those who labor and are heavy laden, "Come unto Me, and I will give you rest." The rest is to be found in Himself, not in His service nor His gifts. We must learn to slumber in the heart, Jesus, I am resting, resting in the joy of what Thou art. He says, "My peace I give unto you." The love of the Father and the will of the Father were His rest and peace, and they may be ours too. Only the meek and lowly heart can enjoy His yoke and learn of Him, but to the natural man this meekness and humility are utterly distasteful, for the natural man is under the control of the devil, and he knows nothing of meekness or lowliness.

"Count Your Blessings"

WOULD you be willing to go back to the standards of living that prevailed in 1812?

In spite of all the praise of "the good old days," would you be content to give up the many conveniences we have gained in the past century?

Former generations knew nothing of the luxuries of modern travel with its observation cars, individual lights in Pullman berths, phonograph recitals, rich appointments, home-like comforts, and special safety devices with which the modern railway system surrounds its passengers.

The rural telephone now places the farmer in instant communication with the source of the latest market reports, and saves him many hours of precious time in the event of sickness or accident.

The introduction of the typewriter and adding machine has lightened the load and lessened the day of the business office.

It was Advertising that first proclaimed the usefulness of these devices, that created an immediate and universal demand for them, that established a world-wide distribution which made them readily accessible to us all.

McCormick invented the reaper and thereby made himself an everlasting benefactor of the farmer. But it was Advertising that carried the wonderful news with its far-reaching significance to the "man with the hoe."

You know what housework used to be. Realize what it is now, since the advent of sanitary plumbing fixtures, hot-water heating, vacuum cleaners, and electric household appliances. Advertising has brought these things into your home. It has eliminated drudgery.

Advertising is service. Science, invention, commerce, are all indebted to its aid. It has raised the standard of living, elevated business ethics, and put us within reach of more real comforts, more real blessings, than we ever enjoyed before.

Advice regarding your advertising is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

Undertaker's Liability

The judge gave his decision at Pollock County Court in a case in which the widow of an undertaker's employee claimed compensation for the loss of her husband, who was said to have caught smallpox from a body he assisted in placing in a coffin. His honor found that the applicant was entitled to compensation.

THE DAIRY INDUSTRY

J. W. Mitchell, of Manitoba Agriculture College refers to the dairy branch of farm work as a manufacturing industry, declaring the full financial returns were to be obtained from it the work must be done on business principles. Good cows must be first obtained, for a poor dairy cow was an unprofitable investment. A good dairy cow would yield about 6,000 pounds of milk in a year, after testing the yield of over 235 herds throughout Manitoba. However, Prof. Mitchell declared that the average was only 2,000 lbs. It was much more profitable to have only 6 cows to keep and care for than 13 poor ones, and 6 good cows would yield as much as 13 poor ones.

FACTORY AND FARM

Together They Build up the Ideal Home Market

No better example of the interdependence of the manufacturing and agricultural interests is required than Ontario. It is not necessary to go into the enormous industrial expansion in the province in the last two years. This is everywhere evident. But what of the farm? The field crops of Ontario last year were valued at $250,000,000 or an average of $1,666 from each of the 150,000 farms. Five years ago, the value of Ontario's agricultural output was placed at 145 millions, and ten years ago it was not more than a hundred millions. The number of farms to share in that one hundred millions was larger than now, so that the average income of each farm was considerably less than $1,666. In fact, the average income in 1901 was about $400, according to calculations made from statistics published by the Department of Agriculture. This means that the Ontario farm of to-day is giving its owner, returns that are at least 160 per cent. greater than they were in 1901. The growing value of the output of the farms can only result in one thing, and that is the increased value of the land. Thus, the latest records of the assessment of the rural areas show that the farm lands of Ontario are worth over $108,000,000 more than in the first years of the last decade. To make the comparison still more striking, the assessed rural land of Ontario is worth $10 an acre more than in 1901, and another significant fact is that the area of these lands has extended in the last ten years fully 1,500,000 acres, showing that farming is actually becoming a more widely followed pursuit in Ontario.

What is true of Ontario also applies to Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and other provinces. The greatest prosperity is where a fertile farming district is tributary to a good factory town. The one helps the other. The best market for the local farmer is the home market and the best produce for the citizen is from the nearby farms and gardens.

Policeman's Clever Disguise

In the case of a man charged at Cardiff, Wales with loitering for the purpose of receiving bets, Police Constable Badger said that, disguised as a butcher and with a bicycle at his side, he kept accused under observation for some time, and saw several men approach and handed him slips of paper and what appeared to be money.

Patti at the Opera

The Baroness Oederstrom (Mrs. Adelina Patti, the charming diva of Craig-y-Nos Castle) attended the performance of the Castellano Opera Company at the Grand Theatre, Swansea, Wales. The diva then Mme. Patti-Nicollini, performed the inaugural ceremony at the opening of the theatre in July, 1907.

Penny Not "Visible Means"

Three tramps, an Englishman, an Irishman, and a Scotsman, were charged at Feltham with sleeping in the deer pens in Bushey Park without visible means of subsistence. The Scotsman said that he had a penny in his pocket. "I carried it all the way from Southampton," he added, "but you can't get a bed in England for a penny. You can in Scotland." The Englishman said he had a penny, too. It was decided that a penny was not "visible means" and the men were sentenced to four days' imprisonment.

Moral Suasion

I don't want oatmeal, screamed the kid.

You must have oatmeal, said his father.

Never force anything on a child like that, interposed uncle, who has theories. Always give the child a choice.

All right, said the father. Now, kid, you can have oatmeal or you can have a clip on the jaw. Which is it?

The child took the oatmeal.

Dysentery corrodes the intestines and speedily eats away the lining, bringing about dangerous conditions that may cause death. Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial clears the intestinal canals of the germs that cause the inflammation, and by protecting the lining from further ravages restores them to healthy condition. Those subject to dysentery should not be without this simple yet powerful remedy.

WOULD FALL IN A FAINT

WHEN SHE ATTEMPTED TO WORK, SO EXHAUSTED WAS THE NERVOUS SYSTEM

The Feeble, Wasted Nerves Were Restored and Revitalized by

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Nervous prostration is a terrible disease to all who understand its symptoms. At times the sufferer feels comparatively well, but with slight exertion the dreadful helplessness returns and all strength seems to leave the system.

This letter from Mrs. Martin very well describes the terrible condition in which many a sufferer finds herself. She also tells how she regained health and strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after all other treatments had failed.

Mrs. Edwin Martin, Ayer's Cliff, Que., writes:—"Before I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition from nervous exhaustion and prostration. Dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor. The weakness was so great that I could not so much as sweep the floor without fainting, but the nerve food helped me after the doctors failed. It has done wonders in building up my nervous system. I can do my own housework now and washing, and feel that this great medicine has been a God-send to me. I think it is the best of medicines."

Thinking It Over

Ma caught pa kissing the hired girl.

What's she going to do about it?

That's the trouble. She doesn't know. She can't make up her mind whether to get rid of pa or the hired girl. Sometimes she says she thinks she can get a new husband easier than she can get a new servant.

Just in Self Defence

Bass fishing was out of season, and the game warden who happened to find a small boy holding a rod and line, took the precaution to satisfy himself that the string on the sand held only catfish, perch and suckers. But a few feet farther along he found a large black bass wriggling and weighted down with a stone. The boy's conscious look proclaimed him the guilty person.

What are you doing with this fish? asked the warden in terrifying tones. Well, you see, returned the boy, blushing, but untroubled, he's been taking my bait all morning, so I just tied him up until I get through fishing.

Superfluous Wealth

Woodrow Wilson, at a dinner at Spring Lake, said of the multimillionaire:

After all, most of the wealth is superfluous. When I think of a multimillionaire's millions, I am reminded of a story about Gobsa Golde.

I have four English men servants, said Gobsa Golde, on the terrace of his marble cottage at Newport—four English men servants, whose sole duty it is to look after my sea bathing.

He cleared his throat pompously and continued:

The first has charge of my bathing suit, the second takes care of the boathouse and the showers, and the third, in a small boat, acts as a kind of life guard to me.

But the fourth—what does the fourth do? a listener asked.

Oh, he takes my bath. Sea bathing always has a depressing effect on my heart.

Eager to Help

He—My dear Miss Gladys, I have been converted, but I had there are some things I must do. The minister has told me, for instance, that where I have done wrong, I must make restitution.

She (sympathizingly)—Sometimes that cannot always be done, for ministers ask hard things.

He (doubtfully)—Now, Miss Gladys, the other day I stole a kiss from you, and, according to the minister I must give it back.

She (promptly)—Well, I suppose you ought to do what the minister tells you.

Did her wedding go off without a hitch?

DIED

PERSCHBACHER—On Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1912, David Louis Perschbacher, aged 11 months, 15 days. Funeral on Thursday.

Will Put Up Tank

The Council met last week at the Council Chambers, members present being Councillors St. Clair, Shantz, Wrigglesworth, Chambers and Oliver.

The Mayor being absent Coun. B. A. St. Clair was elected to the chair.

A bill from T. Macdonald for care-taking and labor amounting to $17.75 was ordered paid.

A motion by Couns. Shantz and Chambers that this Council do not grant the request of the Atlas Lumber Co. permission to put in a weigh scale on Hammond street was carried.

A second engineer for the morning shift at the electric light plant is wanted and the Council will advertise for same.

Mr. Maxwell, one of the firm who installed the power system was present in regard to placing an elevated tank at the power house and submitted his plans for such tank to the Council, also giving estimate of costs of installing such tank, etc., which was about $600, as follows: Building tank stand, brick, $200; tank, $100; pump, etc., $300.

He also advised putting in lightning arresters at power house and recommending a certain make of arrester made by the Westinghouse Co.

On motion by Couns. Chambers and Shantz the Council authorized Mr. Maxwell to order wump for power house as selected by Council.

The Council then adjourned.

If you knew of the real value of Chamberlain's Liniment for lame back, soreness of the muscles, sprains and rheumatic pains, you would never wish to be without it. For sale by all dealers.

W. Wrigglesworth Elected Vice-President

A meeting of the finance committee on the Citizens Band was held on Aug. 29th, those present being Geo. Liesemer, chairman; E. Perschbacher, secretary; H. Gathercole, Ed. Fisher, B. A. St. Clair, J. R. Good, H. E. Osmond, Ed. Weber, Alf. Weber.

Minutes of previous meeting were adopted as read.

In regard to financing the band it was decided, on motion, that a committee composed of G. B. Sexsmith, G. H. Liesemer and Ed. Perschbacher should interview the town council and ask for a grant of $100 to assist the band.

The matter of buying uniforms was, on motion, left to the band committee for further information as to the outfit.

The question of paying members for outside engagements was also left to the band committee to report.

A vacancy has occurred in the officers of the band through the departure of Mr. R. H. Macpherson. On motion it was unanimously decided to elect Mr. Wm. Wrigglesworth to the position of vice-president.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

Caught Skunk

A commotion in the chicken house was the cause of Mrs. Frank Murdock discovering a skunk on the premises one evening last week. She went to the house and informed Mr. Murdock who got a 22 rifle and dispatched the visitor. This is something unusual for this part of the country as skunks are not common here and this is the first one reported to us. The carcass is adorning the corner of the four crossroads southwest of town.

Cemetery Disgrace

Editor Didsbury Pioneer:

Dear Sir—Having occasion to visit the cemetery a few days ago I was more than astonished to find the place in a most deplorable condition. About three years ago the cemetery was put into good shape, the graves being trimmed up, the roads placed in decent order and the whole place had a better look than ever before, but this was only got after a stubborn fight with the then trustees. Now the cemetery is again in a bad state. The front fence is down, posts being rotted off; no gates; roads choked with weeds; graves trampled over by cattle which have free grazing, and altogether the place looks like a spot forgotten. Surely the trustees charged with care of the cemetery are greatly to blame for this condition. If their duties are too heavy for them let them step aside and make room for others who will see the place kept in order. The duties are not heavy, and to those who are not entirely wanting in respect for the sleeping place of the departed, would be a pleasure, not a drudge. I am yours,

A RESIDENT.

The Weather

The weather conditions of the last two weeks have been the cause of a great deal of uneasiness amongst farmers and others because they were unable to finish their haying and were also starting the harvest, the consequence being that all their work is piled up together now the fine weather has come to us again. Some uneasiness was also felt that the wet, cool weather would bring on a snow storm, but the weather has apparently taken a change for the better and prospects now seem good for the farmers to gather in their bumper harvest.

Central

With a clamp on her head like a cage for her hair
She sits all the day in a stiff little chair
And answers the calls that come over the wire
From people of patience and people of ire
And "Number?" she queries of noble or churl
A wonderful voice has the telephone girl.
She has to be pleasant and hustling and keen
With a temper unruffled and ever serene
There are forty-five things she must think of at once
Or some rough subscriber will call her a dunce
Since it seems a general custom to hurl
The blame for your grouches on the telephone girl.

It's wearisome work on the nerves and the brain,
Continual hurry, continual strain
And Central gets tired—as other folks do—
And needs to be thoughtfully treated by YOU.
So think of her doing her best 'mid the whirl
And try to be white to the telephone girl.
